

Call for Submissions

The Asian American Theater Collaborative of Boston is soliciting one act plays or excerpts of full length plays by Asian/Asian American playwrights in the New England area. Plays will be considered for a workshop production at the end of August. We hope to showcase a range of themes in an all inclusive manner by representing and redefining the entire Asian and Pacific Island diaspora specific to the U.S.

As a brand new initiative, the Asian American Theater Collaborative (AATC) strives to connect Asian American perspectives to our community through dramatic performance. We promote awareness of political and global issues, foster new works by Asian American performing artists, and provide a haven for actors, playwrights, directors, and other performing artists.

Please send submissions to us by:
