

CAPE

Coalition of Asian Pacifics in Entertainment

www.cape-usa.org

MEDIA ALERT

WHO

Coalition of Asian Pacifics in Entertainment (CAPE) is the largest Asian American professional entertainment industry organization in Hollywood. Members include studio and network executives, agents and managers, production executives, actors, writers, producers, and directors.

WHAT

With submissions from the United States and all over the world (including Canada, Hong Kong, Japan, South Korea and Taiwan), the Coalition of Asian Pacifics in Entertainment (CAPE) Foundation, Inc., a non-profit arts and entertainment organization, and Fox Entertainment Group (FOX) will be presenting the winners for the prestigious 11th annual CAPE New Writers Awards, in both Screenwriting and Television Writing categories, will each receive a cash prize of $4,000, Final Draft software, a Staged Reading of their winning script as well as meetings with prominent entertainment industry producers and executives.

WHEN

Thursday; August 19, 2010: 6:00 pm more info at www.cape-usa.org

WHERE

Japanese American National Museum's (JANM) National Center for the Preservation of Democracy, Los Angeles

WHY

Join CAPE as they honor Asian and Pacific Islander talents with the winners of the 11th annual CAPE New Writers Awards. Celebrities in attendance include Keiko Agena (GILMORE GILRS), Sarah Drew (EVERWOOD, GREY'S ANATOMY, MAD MEN), Leonardo Nam (THE FAST & THE FURIOUS: TOKYO DRIFT, EVERWOOD, GREY'S ANATOMY), Randall Park (THE PEOPLE I'VE SLEPT WITH) and more!

PRESS

CONTACT

To RSVP as press to cover the event, please contact:

Chase Wang; email: chase@bam-mp.com; phone: 310-869-8030

###