ABOUT LEVIATHAN LAB

Leviathan Lab is a production studio founded in 2009 that includes more than 70 Asian-American actors, writers and directors. More information can be found at www.leviathanlab.com. Leviathan's properties in development cover theater, television, film and online.

ABOUT LEVIATHAN LAB'S TWELFTH NIGHT IN 2011

Inspired by the films of auteur Wong Kar-wai, Leviathan Lab's production of Shakespeare's classic romantic comedy TWELFTH NIGHT will be set in 1960s Hong Kong during the twelve days of Christmas. The production features Leviathan Lab's Asian American classical acting company, directed by up-and-coming Yale School of Drama director Nelson Eusebio III, with original music by veteran Broadway actor/composer Jason Ma (BROADWAY: MISS SAIGON, SHOGUN THE MUSICAL, SLY FOX).

TWELFTH NIGHT is about how Viola, a young woman shipwrecked and stranded in the seaside city of Illyria, sets a series of events into motion that create a tangled knot of mistaken identities, bewildering desires, practical jokes, and ribald revelry that only time and fortuitous appearances can untie.
