

The Ford Theatre Foundation's
Community Bridges Program
SCRIPT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Word Up! Performance Series 2007
At [Inside] the Ford Theatre

The 2007 Word Up! performance series is dedicated to fostering work that portrays experiences of Asian Pacific American and Latino cultures. It includes theatre, poetry and play readings, spoken word, hip hop, stand up comedy and performance art. The series takes place on Saturdays at 1 p.m. from June through early September at [Inside] the Ford Theatre an intimate 87 seat theatre located in the John Anson Ford Theatres complex.

Script submission guidelines:

- 1) Scripts may be submitted by playwrights and/or by producers with permission from the playwright.
- 2) Scripts submitted should have never previously been produced.
- 3) Script must be either:
 - Latino or Asian Pacific Islander themed or;
 - Written by a Latina/o or Asian Pacific Islander playwright.
- 4) Script must be a one act play running between 30 to 40 minutes.
- 5) Submissions should include:
 - Complete script
 - Playwright's bio
 - Play Submission form

- 6) Please mail script to:

Ford Amphitheatre
Word Up! Script Submission
2580 Cahuenga Blvd. E
Hollywood, CA 90068

Envelope must be postmarked no later than December 22nd, 2006.

General Information:

- Selected applicants will be notified by February 1st, 2007.
- The playwright should make him/herself available for a Q and A session after his/her reading.

For more information please call Lizzet Alvarez at 323-871-4537 or e-mail her at lalvarez@lacountyarts.org